"Making Music Magic"

JULY 7th OUR ANNUAL AGM FOLLOWED BY A BOB DYLAN THEME NIGHT and MARIA FORDE

Following our AGM we will have another THEME NIGHT.. Spot acts will be asked to get into the spirit of the night by playing at least ONE Bob Dylan song

OUR GUEST ARTIST ...MARIA FORDE is a great supporter of our Club and we are happy to have her back again!!!!

Eric Bogle writes...Maria Forde is a fine singer and a gifted songwriter. Like all good songwriters her lyrics often reflect an understanding of, and compassion for the human condition, with all its triumphs and disasters, all its bright peaks and dark corners. At her live performances she presents her songs with sincerity, passion and more than a dash of humour, and these very human attributes, along with her fine singing voice, is why she invariably establishes such a seemingly effortless rapport with her audiences....

COMING UP AT PFC

AUGUST 4th THE SIMPSON THREE

The Simpson Three are a trio of siblings who perform predominantly Irish music, with a few interesting flavours! They are highly talented multi-instrumentalists who perform tight and refined arrangements of trad and contemporary tunes and songs.

Their parents, Ray and Jenni Simpson are long-time members of Blackberry Jam Bush Band

Their show will have you laughing along at hilariously terrible sibling rivalry one second, and then will have your toes tapping along to crankin' tunes the next! They are all winners of the FAA Youth Award, Peter J Daly Award and Declan Affley Awards for excellence in Traditional Celtic Music.

"You will definitely wanna check these guys out!" - Their Mum

SEPTEMBER 1st ENDA KENNY

Enda Kenny is an Irish-Born songwriter who has made his home in Melbourne, Australia since the late 1980's. His thoughtful, descriptive stories of his adoptive homeland have struck a chord with festival audiences all over Australia and are always memorable and spiced with plenty of humour. Proud to sing of where he lives rather than where he left, he continues to grow his international audience with recent trips to Germany, Holland, UK, NZ and Canada.

Enda was a Guest Artist at PFC in February 2014 and September 2018 and we are delighted to have him back again

Enda has a new CD titled "KITCHEN BALLADS" and I am sure he will be happy to sell you a copy !!

I'm sure that it would make a great FATHER'S DAY present!!

OCTOBER 6th HAT BAND NIGHT

Yep, it will be on again.. Following the overwhelming success of the Hat Band Nights in the past, it will be on again in October this year!!

The aim is in order to get more folk on stage, and this means the excitement of working and rehearsing with different people!!

You need to express your interest at the next Club nights. Groups will be formed by PULLING NAMES OUT OF A HAT!! (Is that how we get the name "HAT BAND NIGHT"??)

This will happen at the September Club Night, when we will pull names are drawn, and we see what groupings we come up with. Each group will then have a whole month to get a set together to perform in October

FESTIVAL FEVER! Alan Lazarus

Within our local area we are blessed with numerous music clubs and venues where we can strut our stuff before small, but supportive, audiences. It's a great scene, that gives a real buzz to a performer. We have some really talented locals, I love working with them, and am proud to count most of them as friends, however I feel that in a lot of instances we are limiting our musical horizons!

As an individual, I want to push my boundaries as far as I can, to this end I attend quite a few music festivals, either as a performer or a volunteer worker. Personally I prefer the smaller festivals where there are more opportunities for personal involvement.

Local festivals that I have been involved with include the Croydon Buskers Festival, the Basin Music Festival, Mornington Main Street festival, Bayles (sadly not running anymore), the Frankston Festivals, to name a few. Further afield I am also a regular at the Horsham Country Music festival, Girgarre, the Rupanyup Dirt Music festival, Fiddlers at Yarra Junction, with the biggest being the Stone The Crows festival at Wagga Wagga.

What do I get out of it? In a word "EXPERIENCE"! Experience working behind the scenes, experience working in front of larger audiences, experience working with a broader range of performers, improving stage-craft, etc. All of which I use in an attempt to become a better performer. It works for me!

Launch of my album - Audience settling in at "Stone The Crows" (Scary, but what a "high"!)

SONGWRITERS CONTEST 2019

Roy

Bill

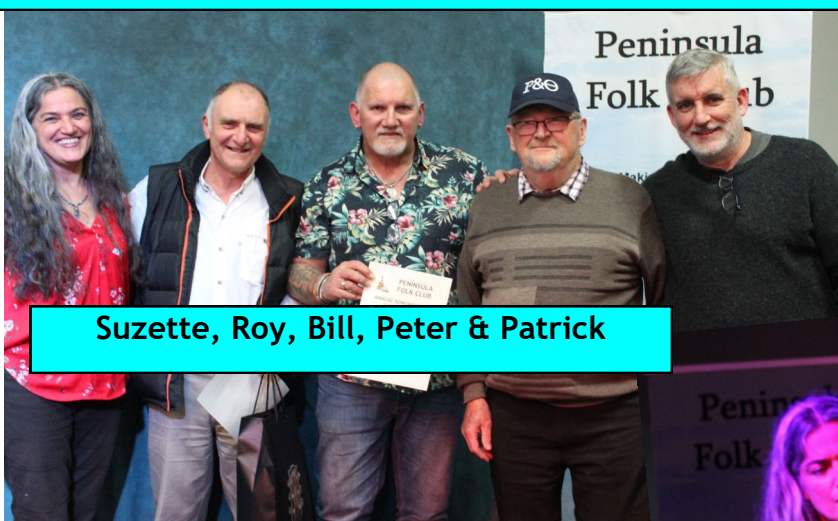

Peter

Our Annual Songwriters Contest for 2019 has been run and won.. A great night of great original songs... Spare a thought for the judges, Patrick Evans and Suzette Herfft. When the scores were counted up, it was no surprise that Bill Dettmer came out on top with his song "Poppa's old DeSoto" Bill has been a judge for our contest in the past , and showed that he did indeed know what he was talking about!.

Roy Carter came in second, with Peter Stanley in third place.

Interestingly, all 3 place-getters are ex Presidents of the Club!

Thanks again TO OUR SPONSORS Guitars and Things and Maton Guitars for their support in this contest and their on-going support over the years.

KELLY COUNTRY PICK BEECHWORTH 16th, 17th & 18th August

The Kelly Country Pick is a winter Bluegrass and Old Time Country Music Convention based in the historic town of Beechworth. It now attracts some 300-500 musicians and patrons and is growing steadily

IRISH & CELTIC MUSIC FESTIVAL, YASS, NSW 13th, 14th & 15th September

Yass is the ideal location for a music festival, set in a delightful rural valley, with heritage rich in Irish and Celtic beginnings. A mostly walking precinct sets the scene in the centre of town for music, poetry, dance, Celtic markets and good craic in unique venues, many serving an excellent variety of food, great coffee and liquid refreshments to suit all. Historical buildings will surround you, with beautiful parks to enjoy. As the third oldest town in NSW, it has lots to offer, especially the wonderful community.

GUILDFORD BANJO JAMBOREE 20-22nd September

Planning is well under way for the 2019 Guildford Banjo Jamboree to be held on the weekend of the 20th to the 22nd of September. It will be our sixteenth celebration of music, songs, dancing, fun, conversations, concerts, teaching and learning, friendship, madness and mayhem!!

FOLK FESTIVAL
come & play

28th-30th JUNE... The festival is held in late June/early July every year, in Newport

It is an activity of the Newport Fiddle and Folk Club. The Club Committee supervises the management of the Festival.

The Festival is not like most festivals that have a commercial focus and seek to attract large crowds by recruiting well-known musicians. Rather, the Festival primarily exists for members of the Newport Fiddle and Folk Club and the local community to celebrate, participate and enjoy local music. Therefore, to showcase local music, the festival aims to have 60% of the performance slots and workshops spaces for members of the Newport Fiddle and Folk Club. These will be offered to club members early in each year

PETE SEEGER TALKS ABOUT BOB DYLAN "GOING ELECTRIC"

Pete Seeger has been portrayed as a folk "purist" who was one of the main opponents to Dylan's "going electric", but when asked in 2001 about how he recalled his "objections" to the electric style, he said: ...

"I couldn't understand the words. I wanted to hear the words. It was a great song, Maggie's Farm, and the sound was distorted. I ran over to the guy at the controls and shouted, "Fix the sound so you can hear the words." He hollered back, "This is the way they want it." I said "Damn it, if I had an axe, I'd cut the cable right now." But I was at fault. I was the MC, and I could have said to the part of the crowd that booed Bob, "you didn't boo Howlin' Wolf yesterday. He was electric!" Though I still prefer to hear Dylan acoustic, some of his electric songs are absolutely great. Electric music is the vernacular of the second half of the twentieth century, to use my father's old term."

QUOTE:

"Don't be impressed by a musician just because they play loud, play lots of notes or have the most expensive music gear.

Be impressed by their musicianship. Be impressed because they play for the music and not for their ego"
