BANKSIA BULLETIN OCTOBER 2019

“Making Music Magic”

NOVEMBER 3RD THE WEATHERED HEADS

The Weathered Heads are a foot-stomping country bluegrass band from Gembrook in Victoria. Formed in 2008 this four piece band plays a mix of folk, country, old-timey & Americana music with an Australian streak and a tradesman touch!

Comprising a mix of guitars, mandolin, banjo, dobro and electric bass, the Weathered Heads keep up a lively sound with rich vocal harmonies, raging banjo, meaningless banter, and hip-swaying rhythms. This is a band that will keep you smiling throughout their set

Presidents Report October 2019

What a great night !!!!!!!

Our October Hat Band Night was just fantastic. Not only for the great music but to be able to see members who do not normally appear on stage performing and having a great time.

Congratulations to everyone, in particular the leaders who unselfishly put the time in to mentor the others.

The "Folk Police" turned a blind eye to some of the songs that were performed that night but assure me that they will be back on duty for the next concert.

Make sure that you mark Sunday December 1st on your calendar, Our Xmas party this year will take a different format. Jamming from 4.30pm to 6.30pm then a two course sit down meal and then an open mike. No bookings for the open mike just put your name down when you come 15 minutes or three quick songs. $10 at the door covers everything and the club will pick up the shortfall.

All proceeds from the raffle that night will go to feeding the needy of Frankston on Xmas day so bring your small change and support the cause.

On another subject, three Music Festivals are coming up. Mountaingrass (run by Evan Webb) Girgarre Moosic Muster and Yarra Junction Fiddlers Convention in February. For those members that have not been I can recommend them all, in particular the last two. Days of sitting around jamming, eating food and having a few ales. Not much sleep and sore fingers but memories that linger for weeks.

If you want free entry to Fiddlers in return for three hours voluntary work just give me a call.

Finally I would like to take this opportunity of thanking Peter Stanley for the hours and hours he puts into the Club Newsletter, what would we do without his contribution, and in fact the contribution of all of our committee members.

Keep Making Music Magic.
